

BUS SERVICE CANCELLATION – INCLEMENT WEATHER

Background

The transportation of students to school is a responsibility shared by parents and the Division both recognizing that the health, the safety and the welfare of the students is of the ultimate importance.

The Division recognizes that from time to time, severe weather conditions or poor road conditions may negatively impact on student safety and occasionally bus transportation may have to be cancelled. Further, given the large geographic area encompassed by the Division, it is recognized that the severity of weather or road conditions can vary from one region to the next.

As a result, the Division understands that severe weather can result in bus schedules being changed or routes cancelled to respond to severe conditions and that those decisions must be able to respond to local variations in conditions. The Division also understands that parents may choose to keep students off the bus or drive them to school regardless of the status of bus service.

Parents are responsible to exercise additional diligence on days of extreme conditions and are to be certain of bus status before sending students to designated bus pickups. Parents are advised to check public information sources and the Division's website for information on bus status.

Procedures

1. Principals will ensure that billet information is supplied for each of its students that live outside of the urban centre where the school is located.
2. Principals will develop procedures to contact billets and/or ensure student safety in the event of route cancellations after students are at school.
3. Factors that impact the decision for a cancellation of bus service include, but are not limited to:
 - 1.1 Severe cold (-40°C ambient temperature or -45°C or greater wind chill).
 - 1.2 Consideration of the weather forecast for the day.
 - 1.3 Severely limited visibility, blizzard or "white out conditions".

6. If the decision to cancel is made after students are in school, students transported to school by bus shall be required to stay at school until they are taken home or other appropriate arrangements for their care have been made.
